

Frequently Asked Questions

Why am I getting this renewal letter?

Target Specialty Products mails out renewal letters to all of our customers whose license is about to expire. If you received a letter, it is because you are a valued customer and we want to make sure that your account is updated as soon as possible. Target Specialty Products does this so that the order taking process has no delays for your business.

For example, if you have a license that expires on December 31st, you will receive a renewal letter some time in the beginning of December.
