

Frequently Asked Questions

If I have an employee who doesn't work for my company anymore, how can I remove his/her license information from the account?

You can contact the Licensing Department and request the individual license to be deleted from your account. You also need to provide the replacement license information to ensure that there are no delays in the order-taking process.