Target Specialty Products Opens Las Vegas Branch

SANTA FE SPRINGS, CA – Target Specialty Products announced the opening of a new facility in Las Vegas, Nev. The branch officially opened its doors for business Monday, July 16, 2007.

“With the establishment of a branch office, we are better able to serve customers in southern Nevada. Customers will notice the expanded product line, experienced, helpful staff and convenient delivery service,” said V.P. and Regional Manager Chuck Synold.

The 3,800 square-foot facility carries a complete line of specialty chemicals and equipment for the professional pest control, landscape, nursery, golf and vegetation management industries.

In conjunction with the branch opening, Target named Kurt Smith as its southern Nevada business manager. Tony Brooks, a 15-year employee of Target’s Fresno facility, is the Las Vegas branch operations manager.

The facility is located at 3455 W. Lake Mead Blvd. in North Las Vegas. A grand opening is in the planning stages, and will take place this fall.

Customers may contact the Las Vegas customer service department by calling 866-472-3695 (toll free) or 702-631-7495.
